Profile

Bailey Campbell is an Amesbury, MA based painter, mother, and lover of bold pigments and soft edges. She moved to Boston following her 2015 graduation from St. Lawrence University, where she pursued a corporate career while balancing her true passion - creating. She became a full-time commission artist in June of 2020, and much of her recent work has been in watercolor, gouache, or acrylic. Her portfolio covers a variety of subjects, with an emphasis on portraiture, landscapes, and event design. She is a current board member of Amesbury's Cultural Council.
